Curriculum Notes

- It is strongly suggested that students meet with the Program Director to discuss their interest in Public Affairs prior to declaring the major.
- Public Affairs Concentration (15 credits): Students are required to take at least three courses in a particular area of interest. Concentration courses can be selected from one of the following areas, or a student may choose to design their own. Concentration options include Urban Studies, Nonprofit Management, or Policy and Politics. Courses will be determined with the consent of the student’s major advisor.
- Students planning to apply to the graduate Master of Public Administration degree program must have 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA.

Use MySeattleU Student Planning to plan your courses and work closely with your academic advisor on your educational plan. You are responsible for knowing information and tracking changes. Contact your Advising Center for support.
