Project Proposal Guidelines

(Minimum 11-point font with 1-inch margins, maximum 2 pages. Note that the review panel will be comprised of faculty and professionals from a variety of EJS disciplines; please write your proposal with this audience in mind.) Please describe:

1. Intended objective(s) of the project.
  2. The methodology you will employ.
  3. Discuss the significance of your project both within your discipline and in relation to the larger concerns of environmental justice or sustainability.
  4. Discuss how your project uses appropriate or novel collaboration, particularly across disciplines.
  5. Discuss the viability of your project by including the project timeline and intent for presentation of the project's results.
  6. Describe the project's intended results (such as a tangible scholarly product, an academic paper, a conference presentation, an artistic exhibit or presentation, or other pre-professional product,...)
  7. Describe the potential for publication or other dissemination.
  8. List all current or pending fellowships or grants, indicating the funding period.
