

Christie Lynk, M.A., LMHC
Curriculum Vitae
lynkc@seattleu.edu

Seattle University
Department of Psychology
901 12th Avenue
PO Box 222000
Seattle, WA 98122-1090
(206) 296-5546

---

Education

- 2005                      Seattle University, Seattle, WA
MA in Existential Phenomenological Psychology
- 2000-2003                The Seattle School, Seattle, WA
Graduate Studies
- 1978-1979                William Carey College, Hattiesburg, MS
Graduate Studies Music Therapy/Fellowship
- 1978                      William Carey College, Hattiesburg, MS
B.M. Music Theory/B.A. Counseling Psychology

Faculty and Administrative Positions

- 2008 - present            Seattle University (SU), Seattle, WA
Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychology
Clinical Director of MA in Psychology
- 2002 - 2017              The Seattle School (TSS), Seattle, WA
Assistant Professor of Counseling Psychology
- 2003 – 2006              Mars Hill Graduate School, Seattle, WA
Academic Dean/Accreditation Liaison Officer
- 1997 - 2003              Mars Hill Graduate School, Seattle, WA
Executive Vice President
- 1978-1979                William Carey College, Hattiesburg, MS
Instructor in Music Theory

Courses Taught

Seattle University

2017-2021: Professional Ethics
2019-2021: Phenomenology of the Healing Person
2008-2010, 12-13: Therapeutic Communication
2010-2012: Psychology of the Marginalized

The Seattle School

2005-2016: Essential Community
2005-2017: Professional Ethics
2005-2017: Seduction, Surrender and Transformation
2008: Human Sexuality
2008-2010: Psychology of the Marginalized
2009: Navigating Community Mental Health
2009, 2011, 2012: Phenomenology of the Therapeutic Alliance
2010: Psychotherapy as Moral Discourse
2011: Marginalization, Poverty and Morality
2011-2013: Restoration in Community: Locating Self-Care
2013-2015: Yearnings: Embracing the Sacred Messiness of Therapy
2014: Trauma Stewardship in Community Mental Health
2015: Rhythmicity in Therapy: Relational Cadence

Clinical Experience: Licensed Mental Health Counselor (WA License # 60145736)

Additional Clinical Training available upon request

1980-present	Psychotherapist: Private Practice
1995-present	Clinical Supervision and Training: Private Practice
1984-1990	Couples and Family Therapist, Berlin, Germany
1979-1982	Music Therapist, Hudson, NY

Seminars

2011, 2103, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2019	Ethics CEU Seminar at Seattle University, Seattle, WA
2011-present	Co-Facilitator of Leadership Development Program Whidbey Institute, Clinton, WA
2018	Race and Equity: Edmonds School District

Papers and Presentations

Lynk, C. (2013). The common good. In Callahan, S. (ed.) Religious Leadership. Sage: US.

(2004) “The Call to Relationship: Emmanuel Levinas and Stephen Mitchell”. Presentation given at the Emmanuel Levinas Conference at Seattle University, Seattle, WA, October.

(2004) “Ethics: A View From the Couch”. Presentation given at the International Forum for Psychoanalytic Education, Chicago, IL, November.

(2003) “Seen and Known”. Presentation given at the Face of Beauty Conference, Seattle WA, November.

Professional Memberships

- IFPE: International Forum of Psychoanalytic Education
- WCA: Washington Counseling Association
- ACA: American Counseling Association
- ACMHE: Association for Contemplative Mind in Higher Education

Service Contributions

2012-2019 Whidbey Institute Board, Clinton, WA

2008-present MAP Alumni Retreats/Days of Restoration

2008-2015 MAP Advisory Board

2008-present MAP Alumni pro bono consultation

2003-2008 Volunteer at Recovery Café and work on the streets of Seattle

2001-present Rituals of Rest: Self-care for Community Mental Health Clinicians