

CREDIT LOAD MAXIMUM

Undergraduates:

Students may take up to 18 credits per quarter. In order to allow highly capable students to broaden their education by taking courses outside of their program requirements, Seattle University has developed the following policy for students wishing to take more than 18 credits in any term:

Students who have a sophomore standing or above and have earned a minimum 3.50 CUM GPA at Seattle University, may take up to 20 credits per quarter. Permission to take more than 20 credits is granted by the Associate Dean or Undergraduate Director using the Petition to the Dean form.

Graduates:

Permission is required to take more than 12 credits per quarter. Permission to take more than 12 credits is granted by the Associate Dean or Graduate Director using the Petition to the Dean form.

Exceptions to the graduate policy are:

1. The MIT program
2. The Nursing Immersion Programs
