

Parent & Family Engagement

By Seattle University • Dec 10, 2024

Welcome to "Family Connections", our Seattle U family e-newsletter. We know how important parents and families are to our students' success. Our goal is to keep you updated on campus happenings and share information pertinent to parenting a college student.

2025-26 FAFSA available now!

Don't wait! The 2025-26 FAFSA form is AVAILABLE NOW! The Student Financial Services office is ready to assist students and families to complete the form if needed. Please reach out if you come across any issues: financialservices@seattleu.edu, 206-220-8020. We are always happy to help! Please remember your student must complete a FAFSA every year.

Clubs and Organizations

Has your student joined a club or organization on campus yet? We have over 115 student clubs. Encourage your student to find one that meets their interest. Or, it is easy to start a new one! They can check out ConnectSU or contact the Center for Student Involvement. Students engaged in their campus community enjoy a higher degree of satisfaction with their college experience.

Residence Halls re-open 1/3/2025

A reminder that university residence halls will re-open on Friday, January 3 at 10:00 a.m. for students to return to campus for Winter Quarter.

Summer Short Term SU Education Abroad Opportunities

Our Education Abroad Office has some exciting new summer short term options for students. Encourage your student to explore the information here.

College of Arts & Sciences "LinkUp"

January 23
1st Floor | Student Center
Students: 4pm-6:30pm
Mentors: 4:30pm-6:30pm

Come as you are. Learn from alumni. Find your pathway.

Encourage your students to attend! LinkUp is a casual, but exciting networking and flash-mentoring event that connects current A&S students with alumni and friends of the College for 3 rounds of conversation.

Mentors will share their career/industry insights, triumphs, and challenges with our students. The goal of this event is to encourage students and to boost their professional confidence. Students will have the chance to speak with at least 3 mentors during the event.

Students can register here.

Parents, if you are interested in being a mentor, please register here.

Focused on College of Arts and Sciences students, but all SU students are welcome to participate.

December questions to ask your Redhawk...

What would you like to do over winter break?

Let's talk about house rules while you are home.

What will you do differently, or the same, next quarter to be successful?

THIRD PARTY ACCESS TO STUDENT FINANCIAL INFORMATION:

There are two types of suggested access that students may give to parents or supporters.

Proxy Access allows family/supporter to speak to the Student Financial Services Office about account status, balance, award letter, and required documentation.

Authorized User Access allows family/supporter login access view billing and payment information, setup payment plans, see tax documents, and get email notifications about billing invoicing. Check out our video for step-by-step instructions for how a student can set up Proxy and Authorized User access for family or supporters.
