

Sinegal SU Graduate and Professional Fellowship 2022-23 Application Instructions

Application period: July 11 – August 1st, 2022

Apply here: https://seattleu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_bxvHqyPR7837zP8

Review period: August 4th-15th

Students notified August 23rd – September 1st

Background

The Sinegal SU Graduate and Professional Fellowship honors Jim Sinegal and his commitment to educational access and equity. The Sinegal Fellowship provides support for underrepresented minority Costco Scholars who have graduated from either the University of Washington or Seattle University and who are pursuing an advanced degree at Seattle University.

The Sinegal Fellowship is a 2-year award with a stipend of up to $5,000 for each year.

Eligibility

- Students who will be enrolled full-time in masters, doctoral or professional degree programs at Seattle University for the 2022-23 and 2023-24 academic years.
- Students who were undergraduate Costco Scholars at either the University of Washington or Seattle University.
- Students with demonstrated financial need. Determination of financial need will be based on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or other institutional methods as evaluated by Seattle University's Student Financial Services Office.

Selection Criteria

Applicants will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Active participation in the Costco Scholars program while an undergraduate at either Seattle University or University of Washington
- Academic merit
- Financial need
- Demonstrated understanding of Seattle University's mission

Expectations

Sinegal Fellowship recipients are expected to remain in good academic standing. In addition, recipients will be expected to help SU acknowledge donors who contribute to the award by participating in stewardship activities which will include:

- Completing a scholarship impact bio to share with the donors of the scholarship (you will be contacted by a Donor Relations representative in January with instructions)

SEATTLE
UNIVERSITY

- Attending the annual Costco Scholarship Fund Breakfast (tentative – currently virtual)
- Serving as a mentor for undergraduate Costco Scholars by participating in various Costco Scholar related programs. You will be directed by a representative from the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

TO APPLY: SUBMIT FULL APPLICATION ONLINE visit:

https://seattleu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_bxvHqyPR7837zP8

APPLICATION DEADLINE: August 1st. Recipients will be notified no later than September 1, 2022.

Questions?

For further information about the Sinegal SU Graduate Student Fellowship, please contact:

Janet Shandley, Director of Graduate Admissions, 206-296-5904, or janshan@seattleu.edu

Christa Callanan, Asst. Director of Donor Relations & Stewardship, 206-296-6965, or callanac@seattleu.edu