

New Faculty Institute 2022 program

Day 1: Wednesday, September 7: 9:45–2:00 LeRoux Room (STCN 160)
9:45	Meet your colleagues over refreshments
10:00	Welcome and introduction to the Provost Provost's Welcome Shane Martin, PhD
10:30	Group photo and Break About NFI Teaching in the Jesuit tradition – Part 1
11:30	Break – coffee, tea, snacks Teaching in the Jesuit tradition – Part 2
12:15	Lunch The well-structured class: Common misconceptions – Part 1 Welcome from the Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion Natasha Martin, JD Preview of Day 2
	ends 2:00

Day 2: Thursday, September 8: 9:45–2:00 LeRoux Room (STCN 160)
9:45	Coffee, tea, light breakfast
10:00	Welcome and reintroductions Small-group learning communities
10:40	Break – coffee, tea, snacks Starting out strong: Cultivating a whole-person learning environment – Part 1
11:50	Lunch Starting out strong: Cultivating a whole-person learning environment – Part 2
1:10	Stretch break The well-structured class: Common misconceptions – Part 2 Preview of Day 3
	ends 2:00

Day 3: Friday, September 9: 10:00–1:00 | Zoom

10:00	Welcome Small-group learning communities Faculty perspectives – topic-themed breakouts
11:05	Break Cura Personalis: Holding space for yourself Closing comments from the Special Assistant to the Provost for Faculty Development Jodi O'Brien, PhD
	Evaluation and close ends 1:00

Follow-up sessions

- An ounce of prevention: Advice from the Office of the University Counsel – Fri, Sep 9 | 2:00–3:30
- Thriving at SU as a term faculty member – Fri, Oct 14 | 3:30–5:00
- University rank and tenure panel – Fri, Oct 21 | 3:30–5:00