STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

WHAT'S NEXT SFS?

- Spring Quarter Tuition Due: March 20
- First Day of Class: March 25
- Last Day to Drop/Add: April 3
- Last Day to Withdraw: May 9

YOU FILED YOUR FAFSA...NOW WHAT?!

The Department of Education began sending 2024-25 FAFSA data to Seattle U in March. Some students may be selected to verify information submitted on the FAFSA; SFS will send students an email if this is necessary. If you receive a request from SFS, be sure to visit mySeattleU to complete any requested documents. Financial aid offers will be released by the beginning of June.

Scholarship Opportunity

The Alfie Scholars Program at Seattle University is now accepting applications from students who want to be change makers in their community and receive a $15,000-per-year scholarship. The program is now open to current rising juniors and incoming junior transfer students. The application deadline is April 30th. Visit alfiescholars.org/apply for more information and to apply.

Spring is for Scholarships

Spring into the search for scholarships! Scholarships are a type of merit-based financial aid that does not need to be paid back. There are thousands of scholarship opportunities! Visit the website for the Office of Student Persistence to learn about scholarship application workshops for extra guidance. To see Seattle U and vetted outside scholarship opportunities, visit ScholarshipUniverse.

For other outside scholarship opportunities, check out sites like FastWeb and ScholarshipOwl.

REMINDER

If you haven't already, file your 24-25 FAFSA!

SCAN ME

SFS Operations provides support to SFS counselors by managing the workflow of financial aid and plays a key role in developing student offer letters. They process federal and private loans and also review documents when students are selected for financial aid verification. Hello from Ben, Matt, and Heing!
